

investkaps

INVESTOR CHARTER

Investment Advisory Services | SEBI IA Reg. No. INA000022190

A. Vision and Mission Statements for Investors

Vision: Invest with knowledge & safety.

Mission: Every investor should be able to invest in the right investment products based on their needs, manage and monitor them to meet their goals, access reports, and enjoy financial wellness.

B. Details of Business Transacted by the Investment Adviser

- To enter into an agreement with the client providing all details including fee details, aspects of conflict of interest disclosure, and maintaining confidentiality of information.
- To do a proper and unbiased risk-profiling and suitability assessment of the client.
- To conduct an annual audit.
- To disclose the status of complaints on its website.
- To disclose the name, proprietor name, type of registration, registration number, validity, complete address with telephone numbers, and associated SEBI Office details on its website.
- To employ only qualified and certified employees.
- To deal with clients only from its official contact number.
- To maintain records of interactions with all clients, including prospective clients (prior to onboarding), where any conversation related to advice has taken place.
- To ensure that all advertisements are in adherence to the provisions of the Advertisement Code for Investment Advisers.
- Not to discriminate in terms of services provided among clients opting for the same/similar products/services offered by the Investment Adviser.

C. Details of Services Provided to Investors (No Indicative Timelines)

Onboarding of Clients

- Sharing of agreement copy.
- Completing KYC of clients.

Disclosure to Clients

- To provide full disclosure about its business, affiliations, and compensation in the agreement.
- To not access the client's accounts or holdings for offering advice.
- To disclose the risk profile to the client.
- To disclose any conflict of interest of the investment advisory activities with any other activities of the Investment Adviser.
- To disclose the extent of use of Artificial Intelligence tools in providing investment advisory services.
- To provide investment advice to the client based on the risk-profiling and suitability of the client.
- To treat all advisory clients with honesty and integrity.
- To make adequate disclosure to the investor of all material facts such as risks, obligations, and costs relating to the products or securities advised.

- To provide clear guidance and adequate caution notice to clients when advising on complex and high-risk financial products/services.
- To ensure confidentiality of information shared by clients unless required to discharge legal obligations or the client has provided specific consent to share such information.
- To disclose the timelines for the various services provided to clients and ensure adherence to those timelines.

D. Details of Grievance Redressal Mechanism and How to Access It

1. Investors can lodge a complaint/grievance against the Investment Adviser in the following ways:

Mode of filing the complaint with the Investment Adviser

In case of any grievance/complaint, an investor may approach the Investment Adviser, who shall strive to redress the grievance immediately, but not later than 21 days from the receipt of the grievance.

Mode of filing the complaint on SCORES or with IAASB

- SCORES 2.0 — SEBI's web-based centralized grievance redressal system (<https://scores.sebi.gov.in>), with a two-level review: first by the designated body (IAASB), and second by SEBI.
- Email to the designated email ID of the Investment Adviser Administration and Supervisory Body (IAASB).

2. If the investor is not satisfied with the resolution provided, the investor has the option to file the complaint/grievance on the SMARTODR platform (<https://smartodr.in>) for resolution through online conciliation or arbitration.

3. With regard to physical complaints, investors may write to:

Office of Investor Assistance and Education, Securities and Exchange Board of India, SEBI Bhavan, Plot No. C4-A, 'G' Block, Bandra-Kurla Complex, Bandra (East), Mumbai – 400 051.

E. Rights of Investors

- Right to Privacy and Confidentiality
- Right to Transparent Practices
- Right to Fair and Equitable Treatment
- Right to Adequate Information
- Right to Initial and Continuing Disclosure — including the right to receive information about all statutory and regulatory disclosures
- Right to Fair & True Advertisement
- Right to Awareness about Service Parameters and Turnaround Times
- Right to be Informed of the Timelines for Each Service
- Right to be Heard and to Satisfactory Grievance Redressal
- Right to Timely Redressal
- Right to Suitability of the Financial Products
- Right to Exit from a Financial Product or Service in accordance with the terms of the agreement with the Investment Adviser
- Right to Receive Clear Guidance and Caution Notice when Dealing in Complex and High-Risk Financial Products and Services
- Additional Rights to Vulnerable Consumers — including the right to access services in a suitable manner even if differently abled

- Right to Provide Feedback on the Financial Products and Services Used
- Right against Coercive, Unfair, and One-Sided Clauses in Financial Agreements

F. Expectations from Investors (Responsibilities of Investors)

Do's

- ✓ Always deal with SEBI-registered Investment Advisers.
- ✓ Ensure that the Investment Adviser has a valid registration certificate, and check the SEBI registration number against SEBI's website (sebi.gov.in).
- ✓ Pay only advisory fees to your Investment Adviser, through banking channels only, and maintain duly signed receipts mentioning payment details. You may also pay through the Centralised Fee Collection Mechanism (CeFCoM) of IAASB, where the Investment Adviser has opted for it.
- ✓ Always ask for your risk profiling before accepting investment advice, and insist that advice is provided strictly on the basis of that profiling.
- ✓ Ask all relevant questions and clear your doubts with your Investment Adviser before acting on any advice.
- ✓ Assess the risk-return profile of an investment, as well as its liquidity and safety aspects, before investing.
- ✓ Insist on getting the terms and conditions in writing, duly signed, and read them carefully — particularly fees, advisory plans, and category of recommendations.
- ✓ Be vigilant in your transactions, and approach the appropriate authorities for redressal of doubts/grievances.
- ✓ Inform SEBI about any Investment Adviser offering assured or guaranteed returns.
- ✓ Always be aware of your right to exit the service of an Investment Adviser, to seek clarifications, and to provide feedback on services received.
- ✓ Always be aware that you will not be bound by any clause prescribed by the Investment Adviser that contravenes any regulatory provision.

Don'ts

- ✗ Don't fall for stock tips offered under the pretext of investment advice.
- ✗ Do not provide funds for investment to the Investment Adviser.
- ✗ Don't fall for promises of indicative, exorbitant, or assured returns — don't let greed override rational investment decisions.
- ✗ Don't fall prey to luring advertisements or market rumours.
- ✗ Avoid transacting only on the basis of phone calls or messages from an Investment Adviser or its representatives.
- ✗ Don't take decisions merely because of repeated messages or calls.
- ✗ Do not fall prey to limited-period discounts or other incentives/gifts offered by Investment Advisers.
- ✗ Don't rush into investments that do not match your risk-taking appetite and investment goals.
- ✗ Do not share the login credentials or passwords of your trading, demat, or bank accounts with the Investment Adviser.

This Investor Charter is issued pursuant to SEBI Circular No. SEBI/HO/MIRSD/MIRSD-PoD/P/CIR/2025/80 dated June 2, 2025, and SEBI Master Circular for Investment Advisers, and is displayed for the information of existing or potential future subscribers of investkaps.